ANSWER TO PRAYER FOR RELIEF

254. Defendants deny that Plaintiffs, or any plaintiff class, are entitled to the relief requested or to any relief, and deny any and all other allegations of the Complaint except as specifically admitted above.

ANSWER TO JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants admit that Plaintiffs demand a trial by jury.

ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

As additional defenses, Defendants allege, assert, and state the following, which apply to each and every cause of action asserted in the Complaint to which such defense may be applicable. By virtue of alleging these further defenses, Defendants do not assume any burden of proof, persuasion, or production not otherwise legally assigned to them. Defendants also do not concede that facts contrary to one or more of the statements that follow would support liability as to any or all of them. Defendants assert and expressly reserve all rights to assert any and all other defenses as appropriate, including as may be revealed during the course of discovery.

Defendants further reserve all rights to join additional parties and assert counterclaims. Use of the term “Plaintiffs” in the defenses refers to the Named Plaintiffs and to any member of the putative plaintiff class alleged in the Complaint.

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs fail to state any claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrines of waiver, laches, and/or estoppel.

THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiffs lack Article III standing to seek monetary damages.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs lack Article III standing to seek injunctive relief.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs lack Article III standing to seek restitution or disgorgement.

SIXTH DEFENSE

The Individual Defendants are not liable because they did not act with reckless indifference or deliberate disregard of the whole body of stockholders.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

The Individual Defendants are not liable because their decision to lower the minimum investment of the Institutional Funds was an exercise of business judgment.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Defendants are not liable under the Colorado Consumer Protection Act because they did not act with scienter.

NINTH DEFENSE

Defendants are not liable under the Massachusetts and Illinois state laws because the conduct at issue did not primarily and substantially occur in either Massachusetts or Illinois.

TENTH DEFENSE

Defendants are not liable under the Massachusetts and Illinois state laws because they were not involved in “trade or commerce” with Plaintiffs.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendants are not liable under the Colorado, Massachusetts, and Illinois state laws because the decision to lower the minimum investment for the Institutional Funds was not “unfair.”

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ claims are barred in whole or in part because they did not suffer any injury or compensable damages.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ claims are barred in whole or in part because any alleged injury is speculative.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ claims are barred to the extent the claims would permit them to obtain double recovery for the same alleged injuries.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ claims are barred in whole or in part because they failed to mitigate damages.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs cannot establish they are entitled to any damages for their claims because their alleged damages are too speculative to be calculated for relief to be granted.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims on behalf of a putative class(es) are barred in whole or in part because the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 are not satisfied.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs fail to state a claim for costs and/or attorneys' fees.

* * *

WHEREFORE, Defendants respectfully request judgment dismissing the Complaint in its entirety and awarding costs and attorneys' fees, together with such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: December 21, 2023
